The tour offers a panoramic glimpse of the jewish quarter of Budapest, place of the jewish cultural heritage, with its beautiful Synagogue (the second largest in the world) as well as its buildings reminders of bright and dark moments of jewish families. Than it takes you to the famous Andrassy Avenue that for its history and achitecture has become a UNESCO's World Heritage site.

It shows you the Heroes' Square that makes impression to most of the visitors for its dimension and gourgeous design. Place of the millenary celebration to a nation, where you can have an insight of the hungarian's history.

The tour will continue in the City park, having a look at Szechenyi Thermal Bath, that is still the biggest thermal complex in Central-Europe, and visiting a popular site of Vajdahunyad Castle.

Then you will be taken to see the exterior of Opera House, a neorenaissance masterpiece and to the impressive House of Parliament, place of hungarian legislature. Stopping at St Stephen Basilica we visit the most important and largest Church of Budapest. Beside its rich baroque interior it boasts of a particular object. Here is on display the most revered relique of the country: the Holy Right Hand of King Stephen. (no access if private ceremonies take place)

Passing over the Danube on the oldest designed bridge we go up to Castle Hill, to the very historical center of the town. There was built the first Royal Seat at Buda in the 13th century. Our visit comprises the site of the Royal Palace, the Presidential Building, the beautiful Matthias Church of ancient origins, that used to be the incoronation place of several Hungarian kings. Eventually we admire the fabulous Fishermen' Bastion, exellent look-out point to the city.

Lunch in a friendly centrally located restaurant.

Gellert Hill – climbing up (by minibus) on top of the hill that is the highest point of the downtown area we visit the Citadel, fortification built by the Habsburg 150 years ago as well as the Liberation Monument erected after the WWII. From the look-out terraces you can enjoy fantastic view on the city. Tour tour ends at the meeting point.
